

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

The Baby's Creed.

I believe in my papa,
Who loves me—oh, so dearly!
I believe in Santa Claus,
Who comes to see me yearly.
I believe the birds talk
On the boughs together;
I believe the fairies dance
O'er the fields of heather;
I believe my dolly knows
Every word that's spoken;
I believe it hurts her, too,
When her nose is broken.
Oh! I believe in lots of things,—
I can't tell all the rest—
But I believe in you, Mamma,
First, and last, and best!
St. Nicholas.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first letter for the children's column. J. A. Miller is our pastor. We love him very much, as he is so kind. My mamma belongs to the Brethren Church. I love the children's column. Enclosed you will find ten cents for the College. I am eight years old.

HATTIE BLOSSER.

Webb Summit, Hocking Co., O.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have not written for a long time. We have no school now. My studies were spelling, reading and arithmetic. I have a little sister seven years old. She has diphtheria. My little sister and myself would like to become members of company C. Find enclosed 20 cents. Ella Wampler 10 cents, Etta Wampler 10 cents. I will have to close for this time. Good by.

ETTA WAMPLER.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have been reading the letters of the EVANGELIST and I thought I would write one too, as my ma belongs to the Brethren Church. J. A. Miller is our pastor. He preaches for us tonight at the Mount Zion church. We live within a mile and a half of the Brethren church. I will tell you children where you will find the longest verse in the Bible. It is found in the eighth chapter of Esther and ninth verse. Enclosed find ten cents for the College.

JAMES BLOSSER.

Webb Summit, Hocking Co., O.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the children's column. I am nine years old. I go to school and my studies are Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography, and Spelling. The United Brethren Church is about twenty rods from our house. I go to Sunday School nearly every Sunday. I will send ten cents for company C. I will close by asking a question: At what place was St. Paul stoned? If I see this in print I may write again.

Good by.

HOWARD MILLER.

Morrill, Kansas.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the children's column. I am eleven years old. I go to school, and my studies are Reading, Spelling, Geography, Arithmetic, Grammar and Writing. I go to Sunday School and my teacher's name is Mrs. Babst. Papa, mamma and my two sisters belong to the Brethren Church. I will send ten cents for company C. I will close by asking a question: In what town did the Lord spend his last Sabbath? If I see this in print I may write again.

EDNA M. MILLER.

Morrill, Kansas.

DEAR EDITOR:—As it is a long time since I wrote I will try and write again. I go to school regularly and have not missed a day. I have one brother and a sister to go to school with me. Their names are Ollie and Arthur. Ollie is nine years old and Arthur is six and I am twelve. Our teacher's name is G. H. Swogart, and we like him very much. My studies are Reading, Writing, Spelling, Geography, Grammar and History. I suppose you all enjoyed your Christmas and New Year's. I did mine. I am not at home, I am staying at grandpa Hessel's. You have got my name wrong in the paper. You have it Carrie D. Ruble and it should be Carrie F. Ruble. I have cousins in Kansas and other parts of the United States and I would like to have my name right. Good by.

CARRIE F. RUBLE.

McVeytown, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first letter for the children's column. I go to school every day and Sunday School every Sunday. My studies are reading, writing, spelling and arithmetic. I must tell you that my uncle Samuel Leedy from Missouri was here on a visit. He started for home today. I felt so sorry to have him leave us, for he was so much company to us. Hope he will get home safe. Mr. Bauman was with him and preached some for us. I will close by asking a question: Who was the Mediator of the old Covenant?

BERTHA M. BOWERS.

West Independence, Ohio.

DEAR EDITOR:—I agree with M. Wolfe about putting advertisements on our page, but I suppose that the page would be half empty if you did not, for there are but few, but it is commencing to fill up again. I hope before many weeks' that there will be enough letters to crowd out the advertisements. I have a friend here in Columbus named Mamie Wolfe. I hope all the letter writers have had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year as I did. We have two weeks' vacation at our school. I cannot think of more to write so I will close.

GRACE HORNE.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write a few lines for the Children's Column. I am 9 years old. I see that Company C is almost filled. I go to school at Baker's Furnace. My teacher's name is Mr. Campbell. I like him very well. We got a treat on Christmas at our Sunday School. It is raining here this afternoon. Papa, mamma and two sisters belong to the Brethren church. There was preaching at Baker's Furnace every three weeks by Mr. Smouse, but he has resigned now, and we all feel very sorry, for he was such a good preacher. I would like to hear from some of my little cousins from the far west through the EVANGELIST. Hope all the little children had a merry time on Christmas and New Years. I enjoyed myself. I hope all the little boys and girls will be more prompt in writing letters for the Children's Column. I will close by sending ten cents for Company C.

SUSIE J. STUTSMAN.

Seward, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will take the pleasure to write a letter for the Children's Column, as I see there are not many letters in it this week. Why boys and girls what is the matter that you do not write oftener? I guess I have no right to scold you for I do not write very often myself. Well, how many of the readers have ever seen the Editor of the EVANGELIST? I have. I met him at the love feast in Johns town last fall. He seems to be a very nice man. My sister Saie and I sold twenty copies of The Story of Jesus to our neighbors last fall. The price of the book was ten cents apiece. I think it is a very good little book and I think it is worth twice its price. Mr. McFaden is holding a protracted meeting at Johnstown. It commenced Dec. 30th, and is still going on. I was visiting my uncle John Strayer's in Johnstown last week. Attended the meeting while I was there. When I came home my sister Martha went up to attend the meeting. There were four baptized when I was there. One was my cousin, Amanda Strayer. Mr. McFaden is a very good preacher. We do not have Brethren preaching here now. Mr. Smouse did preach until lately. He resigned. We are sorry for we thought he was a good preacher. I joined the Brethren church last fall. I think my letter will almost fill one column of the paper itself. Mother says I had better not write such a long one, so I guess I had better close by asking a question: How many times did the children of Israel go around Jericho before the walls fell down? I will send ten cents for Company C.

Yours truly,

MARY A. STUTSMAN.

Within a radius of forty miles of Rochester there are more than 1,500 fruit evaporators, giving employment during the autumn and winter to about 30,000 hands. Last season the production of these evaporators was about 80,000,000 pounds, worth at first cost about $2,000,000. A large proportion of the product is exported.

Conquering by Politeness.

The Bible says "a soft answer turneth away wrath." The Irish Times tells of a case in which a gentle act once served the same purpose:

"A brave, active, intelligent terrier, belonging to a lady friend, one day discovered a monkey, belonging to an itinerant organ grinder, seated upon a bank within the grounds, and at once made a dash for him. The monkey who was attired in jacket and hat, awaited the onset in such undisturbed tranquility that the dog halted within a foot of him to reconnoiter. Both animals took a long, steady stare at each other, but the dog evidently was recovering from his surprise, and about to make a spring for the intruder. At this critical juncture, the monkey, who had remained perfectly quiet hitherto, raised his paw and gracefully saluted by lifting his hat. The effect was magical. The dog's head and tail dropped, and he sneaked off to the house, refusing to leave it until his polite but mysterious guest had departed."

There are times when some animals act more sensible than some people, and this poor organ grinder's monkey preached an excellent sermon to all who are too ready with fits or angry words. It takes two to quarrel, always, and if one won't the other can't.—Sel.
